

Twenty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time - August 28, 2011

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer. 20: 7-9

Speak Up

When you know you are right, you can keep speaking the truth, even in the face of opposition. If you have not thought enough about the right thing to do, you are in danger of being influenced to do something else. If your need for acceptance is stronger than your need for doing right, you will surrender to beliefs opposed to your own. But when you know you are right, and when it becomes a matter of expressing who you are and what you believe, you cannot give in. You have to speak up. You have to keep on going, even when others do not support you any more.

Jeremiah the prophet, in his prayer, has heard God's word, but when he speaks it, people deride him. He tries being quiet, not telling the message God has given him, a message that expresses outrage against the misdeeds of his companions. But when he tries to remain silent, the word of God becomes like a fire burning in his heart. He cannot keep it in. It must come out.

It is not easy to speak God's word. To hold it in becomes unbearable. To speak it creates enemies. But only the truth brings inner peace.

Stewardship Reflection

Tithing for August 21...$10,620

The bishops in their pastoral letter on stewardship warn us about conforming to the destructive "isms" in our culture—materialism, and consumerism. Stewardship calls us to generously share what we have with others, and recognize our dependence on God. This is clearly counter-cultural to secular society's emphasis.
